

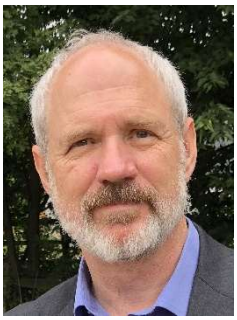
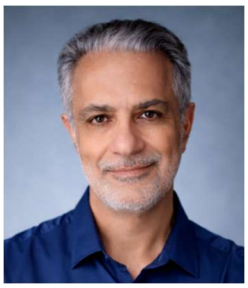
Ed Kroft, FRPSC, FRPSL – Ed is an accredited national and international level FIP philatelic judge (postal history). He is also a nationally accredited judge for philatelic literature. Ed has exhibited at regional, national, and international levels and has written frequently on philatelic subjects. Ed is Secretary of the APS and Chair of its International Committee. He is past President of the Royal Philatelic Society of Canada (RPSC), serves as Chair of RPSC's Ethics Committee and as Honorary Legal Counsel. He is past President and currently a director and Honorary Legal Counsel of the Society of Israel Philatelists.

Darrell Ertzberger – Darrell has been an exhibitor since 1982, an APS accredited philatelic judge since 1989, an FIP juror since 2006 in Thematics and since 2019 in Postal Stationery. He has developed and managed philatelic shows at the local, national (WSP) and international levels. Since 2021 he has been the chairman of the APS Committee for Accreditation of National Exhibitions and Judges (CANEJ). In 2022 he became President of the New Mexico Philatelic Federation. He is a member of numerous national and local philatelic societies and resides in Albuquerque, New Mexico.



Mark Loomis – Mark is a lifelong collector specializing in the Rhodesias and social postal history. He has been an accredited judge since 2019. Mark has won WSP grand awards for both single and multi-frame exhibits. Mark is past show chair and current jury liaison for PIPEX, a member of the APS Joint Finance and Audit Committee, author of several philatelic articles and publications, and a Fellow and North America Co-Regional Representative for the Rhodesian Study Circle.



Behruz Nassre, FRPSL – Behruz is an accomplished exhibitor and judge, accredited nationally and by FIP. He is active in the APS, CCNY, RPSL, UPSS and other societies. Behruz is chair of WESTPEX and webmaster of the show as well as several other philatelic sites. As an exhibitor he has won several international gold and large gold medals for his Persia exhibits. Behruz also expertises Iranian philatelic material for the APS and the Iran Philatelic Study Circle.

Patricia Stillwell Walker, RDP, FRPSL – Pat has been an accredited judge since 1985. She collects and exhibits postal history starting with Ireland; her exhibit won the Grand Prix National at LONDON 2000. She decided she needed to collect “something US” and chose Baltimore, which she exhibits today. Pat also formed a collection and exhibit of Howard County Maryland where she lived before moving to Florida in 2014. Pat is a Past President of AAPE and for many years authored the Q&A column in The Philatelic Exhibitor.

Philip W. Leber – Philip Leber is an established attorney, distinguished legal scholar and a life-long philatelist. His professional history includes twenty-five years on the adjunct faculties of George Washington University, George Mason University and others, including State College of Florida where he currently teaches. His philatelic expertise is in the areas of U.S. Postal History, First Day issues, Polar, Telegraphy and Youth interests. March Party is Philip’s third apprenticeship.