President Underwood called the meeting to order at 8:07. All business was discussed.

Charlie Ball is recovering, his health and spirit are mending, day by day. There were three ladies that attended our meeting. One asked about membership. There were no membership applications. Someone asked about one of our old members, Viv Lucas. There were ten (10) members present.

Mund Park Classic Society will meet with us

The auction was of the Francis Cooper collection, the material was very good, our auctioneer was Mr. D. Bianci, and the money realized was.

Our entertainment was a cloth line exhibition, there were four exhibits. First prize went to Mr. D. Bianci, a very informative talk. Second prize to Father Joe Mach, his talk and exhibit almost won out for first place. There was a tie for third place, between Mr. D. Gertz and Mr. J. Mill. Mr. Leib Staps, of the political nature, strong tie with
