

Minutes of the 195th Regular Meeting
1957

January 5, 1958

President Parker called the meeting to order at 8:00 with 17 persons present.

Minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as read.

Membership Applications from Brown, Jayer, Bertha, and Hall (Georg) were duly noted.

News of Members: Christmas cards from Phil Seeger. News from Jack White-
Hickey, last seen in Helsinki, Finland.

A letter of excuse was received in honor of Mr. Lee Koch.

Mr. Lucas is making available applications for membership in the American Topical Association.

The recent Christmas party was well-deserved praise.

Dr. Bell showed his new holograph envelopes and offered to give away
PIREX seals.

Scotch Party Items: The banquet is nearly sold out; exhibit filling up for 1958.

Future Entertainments: Highlights include music somewhere - A visit to a vanished land. Bob Terry - Canadian Bill stamps, and Philatelic Fakes and Forgeries.

Philatelic News: Mr. Ormrod exhibited one volume from the philatelic mail envelope in the popularity contest. This was over 1000.

Stamp of the Week: Mr. Gammie broke his new year's resolution by showing a set of the proofs of 1870's issue, printed in 1874.

Covers of the Week: Mr. Bickelbauer had an 1861 covering to Trinidad. Mr.
Allen had three on Cleveland postmarks, and Mr. Pulver had a Chicago,
Dec. 24, 1867, 4-bar hand cancelled, with nice arrangement.

Donation Auction: Miscellaneous covers, etc. brought a total of $16.25.

Financial Report: Our general fund decreased by about $400 last year, but not to worry our assets are in neighborhood of $25,000.

All officers then resigned.

New officers were installed, but they looked pretty much like the old ones.

Entertainment: Mr. Hall gave a quick showing of Christmas cards with philatelic themes or decorations. It was fun.

The meeting adjourned at 9:55.

Garfield - Perry Stamp Club - Minutes for meeting of March 23, 1990

T. F. Allen in the absence of R. Parker called the meeting to order at 8:11. 7 members present.

C. I. Ball gave first reading of membership applications for Lyndall Hughes, Greg Cloyd and John Jugan. No objections recorded. Also, C. I. B. read complimentary letter received from Ernst Cohn thanking us for our hospitality at March Party.

- A brief pause while refreshments were ordered including two Australian beers with bears.

T. Allen reported new Masonic contract on the way. Subway "stuff" finally gone. Preliminary estimate of March Party financial results are close to original budget.

^{Ernie}
~~Jim~~ Johnson would like to develop thematic collection on Jazz. He showed covers. Encouragement given. Should talk to Denise and Vince.

Tom Allen and John Stanitz showed gems acquired at March Party.

For entertainment long awaited APS program on detecting forgeries was shown and enjoyed by those present.

Meeting officially adjourned at 9:41

Acting Secretary

40 Meeting of the
Garfield-Perry Stamp Club

March 30, 1990

Meeting was called to order by His Honor Charles Eyeball at 8:10 P.M. with 16 members attending.

The minutes of the previous meeting taken by Bob Stanger were read and approved.

Old Business - none

New Business - none

March Party News - There were many letters read from out-of-town people who attended the March Party. They were all most complimentary.

Denise Stotts gave a preliminary report on the sale of pins, books and covers. Most encouraging.

The write-up in Linn's was distributed. It was a good one.

The final reading of the applications for new members was made.

In Philatelic News, it was reported that Susan McDonald had shown her Australian slides at the McKinley Club.

It was also reported that Denise Stotts won a vermeil award at ROPEX and Dale Pulaver and Jay Stotts won gold awards at the show in Rochester.

John Stanitz showed a bound copy of pages from his collection.

An auction of covers brought an all-time high for a single lot. $11.
This material was through the courtesy of the China Stamp Society and was presented to Denise Stotts by John Stanitz.

The "entertainment" of the evening was a review of the activities during the terms of the living past presidents of Garfield-Perry. This was chaired by Len Kemper and Charlie Ball. It was interesting to note that 7 out of the 14 past presidents attended the meeting and made extensive remarks. Several of the past presidents who were not able to attend the meeting sent letters of their recollections and highlights of their presidential terms.

It was a most enjoyable meeting with refreshments served of ice cream and cookies. It was assumed that a precedent was established and that refreshments would be served at each weekly meeting.

Announcement: Our annual picnic will be Sunday, September 16, at Norm Townsend's. We will meet with the Collectors' Club of Akron on Tuesday, September 16.

Fututure Entertainments: Bob Stanger will show slides of Greece but not from the island he's going to this summer.

Philatelic News: There will be a blank page 3 in the next PerryScope. Birth-day greetings to the queen mother from the Isle of Man. Mr. Ball had a corner card from the U.S. Sanitary Commission but couldn't quite remember why the tic-tac-toe cutout in its upper right corner.

Book of the Week: David Phillips' "Catalogue of US County and Postmaster Postmarks" is cheaper if you don't get it bound and it has the expected error.

Stamp of the Week: Mr. Stanitz had a flyspeck variety of #2 including the dot in the margin of the stamp underneath.

Reminder of the Week: The deadline for a 4-day pass to the Cincinnatti show is July 31.

Auction: Mr. Pulver earned $33.75 for Mr. Whittlesey's donation material.

Entertainment: Mr. Ball asserted that he had tried to make it patriotic but didn't get too much help from the members, then backed down. Mr. Parker showed some of his 4th of July postcards from the early 1900's. Mrs. Stotts, one of those who go backwards when you dance, had a fancy bicentennial album. Mr. Stotts showed two FDC's cancelled July 2, 1965. Mr. Ball said its nice to be in the Sons of the American Revolution, even if you don't have a son named Harold, to get points, but that's neither here nor there, showed a free frank from Norfolk, England, 1775, promising to send details of the action on Bunker Hill. Mr. Allen had some nice Cleveland, Civil War pariotics.

The meeting adjourned at 9:12.

GARFIELD - PERRY STAMP CLUB

Minutes of the 4022nd Regular Meeting

July 20, 1990

President Parker called the meeting to order at 8:00 sharp with 17 members present.

Minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as read.

There was no old nor new business.

Philatelic News: Mr. Ball showed two French stamps with "GP" perfins. The USPS delivered 42% of the world's cards and letters at a rate that is the cheapest among major nations. From an 1855 "Cleveland Leader", via Mr. Allen, confirmation that there was express mail between Cleveland and Washington as early as 1807.

Stamp of the Week: Mr. Stanitz showed recently acquired early essays of designs for the 3¢ 1851.

Covers of the Week: Mr. Ricksecker showed a corner card of Ricksecker, produce commissioner, Cleveland, his grandfather. Mr. Allen had an 1843 Cleveland congressional free frank.

Future Entertainments: 1869 slide show, a bad night, GP history and memorabilia, no meeting on either August 24 or 31, picnic September 23.

March Party Items: The cachet of ship "City of Cleveland III" is on track. New chartreuse fliers available. Judges will be DeVoss (chmn.), Bauer, Jordan, McCann, Schimmer, and apprentices Harris and Stager.

Entertainment: Mr. Ball introduced Mr. Pulver with "Mexican Miscellany". He showed a good variety -- from first issues through recent exports issue, officials, registry seals, airmails, etc. It was all attractive and well explained.

The meeting adjourned at 9:35.

Respectfully submitted

GARFIELD - PERRY STAMP CLUB

Minutes of the 4023rd Regular Meeting

July 27, 1990

President Parker called the meeting to order at 8:05 with 11 members present.

Minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as read.
There was no old nor new business.

Philatelic News: Canada with a series on "majestic forests!"
Mrs. Stanitz has verified that the new self-adhesives will stick, even if you lick them. As of now, 33 pages of our forthcoming Cleveland book exist, roughly 40% of the total.

Stamp of the Week: Mr. Stanitz showed the essay for the 1¢, 1851, which started as a 6¢.

Cover of the Week: Mr. Allen had someone else's POW cover, with a seemingly incorrect rate.

March Party Items: The Bureau Issues Association will probably have its annual meeting in conjunction.

Future Entertainments: August 10, GO history and memorabilia; September 18, joint meeting in Akron; Sept. 23, picnic.

Entertainment: With the technical expertise of C. Ball and J. Underwood, we were treated to a talking slide show on the 1869 issues, narrated by J. David Baker, from the U.S. Philatelic Classics Society. The program was, in all respects, excellent.

The meeting adjourned at 9:30.

GARFIELD - PERRY STAMP CLUB

Minutes of the 4025th Regular Meeting

August 3, 1990

Former President Allen called the meeting to order at 8:04 with 11 members present.

Minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as read.

There was no old nor new business.

News of Members: Simine Short invites us to the Chicago show. Fred Nemecek had a stroke on July 13 -- no noticeable damage, playing golf again already. Long note from Phil Stager -- Florida show conflicts with ours again. Susan McDonald is undergoing chemotherapy.

Philatelic News: Incidentally, the Canadian forest issue is sponsored by PetroCanada, selling them at discount with gas purchases. Mr. Ball came up with two post cards featuring the lamented Manger Hotel, one to the club from Judge Lybarger, and one from the USPS reminding us that the theme for (October) Stamp Collecting Month is fishing, and the recent issue of the U.S. Specialist featuring the Stotts family.; There is evidence that the Ohio City Branch was charging an extra 1¢ per letter in the mid-1800's.

Cover of the Week: Mr. Stanger got a nice freefrank patriotic in recent New Hampshire auction and a pair of 47's on cover from Frajola auction.

March Party News: Negotiations are proceeding apace with the BIA.

Future Entertainments: No meetings on either August 24 or 31.

Entertainment: Mr. Ball introduced the humble secretary as one who usually stands in for a dirty dog. The slide show ensuing, candid shots of GP events, lived up to that introduction.

The meeting adjourned at 9:25.

Respectfully submitted

Minutes of the Social Regular Meeting,

September 29, 1990

Vice-President Smith called the meeting to order at 8:00 with 15 members attending.

Minutes of the previous meeting, including Mr. Townsend, were gratefully accepted.

News of Members: Having inventoried carefully, Mr. Townsend alleged that one of his pigs is missing since our recent picnic near their quarters. It was brought to our attention that the same Mr. Townsend has received the Award of Honor from the Ohio Association of Philanthropic Homes for the Aging.

Phil Stettin News: Knowing we'll have an auction at the CEF-DOR show, two things from Russia and Hungary are available via Cheyenne, Wyoming.

There was no bid for my husband.

Future Interest: Will make a U.S. Ship Mail, John Stough's exquisite collection of 1840's.

A donation auction of Phil's society books generated $3.25.

Next Party Plans: Will block in the Association; the ABE's will hold a session.

Interjection of the Week: The Antiquarian Society will have a show at Grey's Library October 5-6.

Intercomments: As the Philatelic Foundation failed to deliver the promised set of show, we were treated to a special surprise version of Wastebasket Philately by the one and only G. L. Bell. We were lucky to be here. (Some of us are lucky to be anywhere) From the actual wastebaskets of the Fan Standard all ~~the~~ were received unopened, stamps added, and all manner of eccentricia -- all unique or rare, most entertainingly presented.
