

Frederick Lawrence, Chief Judge

Dr. Frederick P. Lawrence has been a stamp collector since 1960 and an exhibitor since 1989. He is an APS accredited Chief Judge and an FIP accredited judge in the Traditional class. Professionally, he is a university-level educator.

Rick Gibson

Rick Gibson, retired Air Force Master Navigator, was a late bloomer for the philatelic community. He began collecting Smokey Bear FDCs in the early 2000's and hasn't looked back.

Mark Loomis

Mark M. Loomis has been collecting stamps for over 35 years. He has authored numerous philatelic articles and was recently made a fellow of the Rhodesian Study Circle. Prior to his retirement, Mark practiced international and corporate law.

Ross Towle

Dr. Ross A Towle has been a stamp collector since he was 9 and an exhibitor since 1974. He is an APS accredited Chief Judge and a FIP accredited judge in the Postal Stationery and Postal History classes and FIP accredited Jury Secretary.

Dan Warren, M.D.

Dan is a retired Army Officer and physician, an APS accredited judge since 1971, and a past president of what was then the Confederate Stamp Alliance, among other philatelic organizations. Having sold his Confederates some years ago, he now collects Montenegro, Italy and United States.

Van Siegling, Apprentice

Van Siegling is the Apprentice Philatelic Judge for Garfield-Perry 2022. He is President of the Columbus Philatelic Club. He is best known for his exhibit, "The Magical World of Harry Potter." This will be his third apprenticeship.