

Elizabeth Hisey – Elizabeth (Liz) has been involved with the hobby for over 20 years. She was a founding member of the Women Exhibitors and is the Immediate Past President and current Treasurer. Liz has just retired as Chairman of the APS Committee for Accreditation of National Exhibitions and Judges, which she chaired for the past six years. Liz is also a Fellow of the Royal Philatelic Society London and is a member of the Council of Philatelists at the Smithsonian National Postal Museum in Washington D.C. She is an APS accredited chief judge. Liz and her husband Bob live in Sarasota Florida.

Guy Purington – Guy is a 50-year collector, 30-year exhibitor and 25-year accredited APS judge. Involvement in exhibiting led to many years as bourse and facility chair for both Colopex and the Worthington Stamp Show. His long descent into the hobby began in New Hampshire through collecting postal history and postcards rather than stamps, and as an extension of bottle digging, antiques and local history.

Mark Schwartz – Mark is a retired pharmaceutical executive. He has collected for over 40 years but became more active when he retired in 2007. He is a director on several philatelic boards and is an inveterate exhibitor, author and speaker.

Stephen Suffet – Stephen is a retired New York City educator. He has been a stamp collector since 1955, an exhibitor since 1985, and an APS accredited judge since 1996. Steve is also a semi-professional folk musician in both the UK and the USA.

Ken Trettin – Ken is a 50+ year member of the APS and many other philatelic societies for shorter periods. He is both an APS accredited chief judge and chief literature judge. He was editor of The American Revenuer for 36 years and editor of the Congress Book for 14 years. He collects his hometown postal history and revenues (US, Estonia, Germany) and is sometimes known to brew his own beer.

Ken Lemke – Ken is a past president of the British North America Philatelic Society and current V.P. of The Royal Philatelic Society of Canada. His primary collecting interests are Canada's King George VI era, including postal history, censor labels, air mails, and postal stationery. Other collecting interests are the postal history of Hamilton, ON and Lady Boats. Garfield-Perry March Party will be his second apprenticeship.
